NILUFAR

Parterre is a series of patio outdoor furniture that blends contemporary lines with refined traditional accents. Comprising a sofa, armchair, side table and coffee tables, each piece features a tubular metal frame with clean, fluid contours. The backrests are crafted in woven natural straw, evoking the charm of 19th-century wickerwork while adding texture and warmth. Cushions on the seating elements are upholstered in durable velvet, specially designed for outdoor use, while the tables are finished with elegant pink granite tops that lend a sculptural, tactile quality to the ensemble.
